I am in strong opposition of the Hague Convention. It will lead to international adoption being monopolized by only a few large adoption agencies and will totally wipe out all of the smaller, non-profit agencies who work so hard to find caring families for many children across the world. In addition, all of the extra required expences mandated by the Hague in order to be accredited will cause those remaining agencies to drastically raise their fees, thus preventing lower and even middle class Americans from being able to adopt internationally. I strongly urge Congress NOT to sign this treaty! An unforgivable number of families and children will not be united if Congress supports the Hauge Convention regulations.
